

TEACHER OF DRAMA

Fixed-term contract to cover for maternity leave

January 2022

Whitgift is one of Britain's leading independent day and boarding schools for boys aged between 10 and 18 years with approximately 1500 pupils and over 100 boarding or flexi-boarding pupils. The School, which was founded in 1596 by Elizabeth I's last Archbishop of Canterbury, John Whitgift, is one of the oldest in Croydon and enjoys facilities of outstanding quality, amongst the best available nationally. It is set in an attractive 48 acre parkland site in South Croydon with excellent links to London, Surrey and the south coast.

The Department

The Drama Department is growing in size and stature, and both curricular and co-curricular segments of the department are flourishing. With specialist staff providing academic lessons from the Lower First to the Upper Sixth, Drama is highly regarded within the School.

Drama is taught by two specialist Drama teachers and staff from the English department. The Department is well-resourced, with a strong budget to create incredible productions, invite in visiting practitioners of high quality and to organise numerous trips to London theatres. There is a full co-curricular programme designed to encourage a love of Drama – major productions throughout the year, and a planned company at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival, as well as drama and backstage clubs.

Public examination results have been extremely good in recent years. At A Level, the 2021 A*-A pass rate for Drama was 100% and at GCSE, 88% of pupils achieved 9-7 grades.

The Department is very busy and expectations within the School are very high. The successful candidate must be someone who is confident, proactive and reflective about their teaching, has excellent communication skills, is capable of contributing positively within a team and is committed to raising attainment through excellent teaching and learning.

Some of the recent plays that have been performed at the School include Around the World in 80 Days, The Jungle Book, Macbeth, A Few Good Men, Fantastic Mr Fox, The Government Inspector, The Lion, the Witch and the Wardrobe, Much Ado About Nothing, Lady Macbeth, The Importance of Being Earnest and The Crucible. The School also has a proud tradition in staging musicals, and recent productions have included Hairspray, Guys and Dolls, Sweeney Todd, Monty Python's Spamalot, West Side Story, Bugsy Malone, The Producers, and Little Shop of Horrors.

Performance opportunities exist for boys of all ages, with some productions confined to particular year groups. Auditions are always completely open, which renders performance drama accessible to everyone.

A number of Whitgift students have taken leading roles in many television productions, including The Missing, War and Peace, Grandpa's Great Escape and Grantchester, as well as starring in the West End in such shows as The Lion King, Matilda, Motown The Musical, and Titus Andronicus at the Globe Theatre.

Curriculum

Boys in the Lower First to the Lower Third explore fundamentals of theatre and drama, with a focus on acting and performance. At this stage, pupils are taught to evaluate and analyse their own, and others', work. As boys progress through the School, Drama lessons take on a much more academic feel, with theatre vocabulary being taught in abundance, but building on the theatrical fundamentals taught in previous years

Drama in the Upper School follows the CIE IGCSE specification for GCSE and the AQA course for A Level. The breadth and balance of the curriculum ensures that students are taught how to create and respond to drama, by working with a variety of stimuli from different sources and traditions. Courses in Theatre and Literature and Performance are offered for the International Baccalaureate. For practical examinations at GCSE, A Level and IB, pupils are encouraged to make text choices themselves; it is important that pupils feel comfortable with their choices and go on to flourish in their practical assessments.
